Take in Time, Tolu-Pine.

That tickling cough will kill in time if not knocked off with Tolu-Pine. For hacking coughs that irritate Tolu-Pine is the stuff to take. Say Tolu-Pine will soon get rid of the wheezy cough of the phthisis kid.

To loosen the cough that is hoarse and tight Tolu-Pine is always right.

The only good there's in this rhyme is to catch and hold your eyes in line. That you may know that now's the time

To stop that cough with Tolu-Pine. Coughs that come with a whee-whee-where Tolu-Pine gives quickest ease. Come home, dear father, come home. When the clock on the college strikes nine.

And don't fail to bring One particular thing—That's Richardson's Tolu-Pine. A bit of doggerel now and then Gets twisted in a fellow's pen And seems to link right into rhyme With—stop that cough take Tolu-Pine.

Price 25c. Five bottles, $1. Yours Respectfully,

SUNDAY, JAN. 7, 1900.

Buggy Smashed.

Capt. James H. Young, who has been employed at Webster's oil refinery, had a very narrow escape from death Saturday morning about 8:30 o'clock, at the railroad crossing on Front street.

A yard engine was switching in that neighborhood and Capt. Young failed to notice the approaching cars and started across; one gate being raised. People who saw him start across in front of the train held their breath expecting to see him ground to pieces as the cars struck the vehicle. The Captain hung to the lines, however, and finally succeeded in getting himself and the broken buggy out of the way without receiving any injuries beyond a scare.

Yardmaster Whiting reports that as the train was coming down the grade from the bridge, the lower gate was let down and the upper gate was coming down when Capt. Young drove through. Whiting also says that Capt. Young stopped in the middle of the track. Every effort was made to stop the train and the trainmen say that they were not responsible for the accident. The hind wheel of the buggy was all that was broken.

Cyrano de Bergerac.

The play of Cyrano de Bergerac is too well known to the reading public of this city to require any words of comment on our part, but its presentation to the theatre goes last evening was in every respect worthy of commendation. Mr. Newell, who takes the leading part, "Cyrano" (and by the way, it is a most difficult part) is certainly deserving of the many favorable comments he has received everywhere on his splendid acting of the part. He is well supported by his company, every member of which shows stage qualifications of the first order. Kenneth Davenport, as "Count de Guiche," Lucius Fairchild, as "Christian du Neuvillette," Harry Martin, as "Viscount de Valvert" and Lolla Fairchild, as "Roxane," are especially worthy of praise.

The scenery is grand and lends to the play a charming effect.

Throughout their three night engagement here Mr. Newell and his company have won the most favorable comment from the Marietta theatre going public.

Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of the Pioneer City Building and Loan Co. held last evening at the office of the company, elected the following directors to serve for the year 1900: J. S. Simpson, J. S. H. Turner, John Kaiser, A. L. Gracey, S. J. Hathaway, J. M. Williams, N. Moore, W. H. H. Jett and H. E. Smith. Mr. O. P. Hyde was elected Secretary and Treasurer, and Mr. J. C. Brennan, Attorney for the Company.

After the election of the Board of Directors, that body met and elected J. S. Simpson, President and J. S. H. Turner, Vice President.

Proceeding the election of the board of directors the retiring board did a very important thing in reducing the interest rate to borrowers from 7 1/2 per cent down to 6 per cent. This is a favorable action to the borrowing public for it very materially cheapens the price of money. This low rate applies to the borrowers already on the books, whose aggregate loans are not less than $200,000.

Foot Race at Midnight.

A 100-yard dash is something that is seldom witnessed at midnight in this or any other city, but such an affair occurred last night on Front street, below Butler.

Two young men had disagreed as to each other's ability in the racing line, and decided the question by a practical demonstration. In spite of the hour, the race was witnessed by a crowd of spectators.

Real Estate Sale.

G. B. Sunderland sold yesterday the Cone property on Washington street, owned by Messrs. Turner and Jordan, to Mr. A. T. Nye. The consideration was about $5,000. The lot is one of the finest in Marietta, and is 90 by 180 feet in size.

We understand that Mr. Nye will in the spring build a fine residence on the site and occupy the same.

Nearly Drowned.

Mr. Bert Newton and his little boy broke through the ice near Rainbow, on the Muskingum river Friday afternoon, and were rescued by Mr. Wm. Wagner, who was skating near that place. The two were almost exhausted and would have both drowned had it not been for the timely aid of Mr. Wagner.

Ray Webster's Second Trial.

The second trial of Ray Webster at Beverly on the charge of criminal assault upon Stella Wilson, was had before Squire Foreman yesterday in the Township building at Beverly. A large crowd had assembled to hear the trial. At the close of the evidence for the State, Ralph Starling, attorney for the defense, offered a motion to have the defendant discharged on the ground that the State had failed to make a prima facie case. The prosecution was conducted by J. C. Preston, ex-Prosecuting Attorney of Washington County. After arguments pro and con the Court sustained the motion and the defendant was discharged. The holding of the case was greeted with round after round of applause by the bystanders, among which His Honor gave the young girl some fatherly advice.

Breaking Ice.

The Catherine Davis 4s at work trying to break the ice between the mouth of the Muskingum and Knox's boat yards. The object is to reach and rescue the Francis J. Torrence before the thaw starts the gorges above to running.

If the Davis reaches the Torrence in time the latter will be brought to the harbor at the mouth of the Muskingum. The Davis was making slow progress at first, but the warmer weather yesterday rotted the ice enough to make it break more easily.

The damage done to the Torrence by the running out of the ice while she is in her present position would probably be great.
